Course:

"Alternative Spring Break in Ethiopia"
AFRAS 499 (3 units)

This course will meet on campus during the spring semester and travel to Ethiopia over break. While abroad, you will be placed in teams to work in communities performing short-term projects, while also learning about such issues as cultural resistance to enslavement, poverty, gender issues, educational and cultural literacy, and resistance to colonialism in Ethiopia. These experiences are designed to heighten social awareness and promote life-long social action. The focus of this course is also to highlight the historic significance of Ethiopia to Africana people worldwide.

Info Sessions:

Location: Black Resource Center
Wed. Sept. 18 @ 3:30-4:30pm
Thurs. Sept. 19 @ 3:30-4:30pm
