

The Department of Africana Studies presents:

Dr. Julius W. Garvey, M.D.

#JUSTICE4GARVEY: *Redeeming an African Hero: The Life, Legacy, and Exoneration of Marcus Garvey.

Thursday, February 3rd from 12:30-1:45 p.m.

Surgeon and medical professor Dr. Julius W. Garvey was born on September 17, 1933 in Kingston, Jamaica to Universal Negro Improvement Association founder Marcus Garvey and activist Amy Jacques Garvey. The younger of two sons, Garvey was raised in Jamaica. He graduated from Wolmer's Trust High School for Boys in Kingston in 1950; and then earned his B.S. degree from McGill University in Montréal, Canada in 1957, and his M.D., C.M. degree from McGill University Faculty of Medicine in 1961. Garvey was a certified fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons, the American College of Surgeons, the International College of Surgeons, and the American College of Chest Physicians, as well as a diplomat of the Board of Cardiothoracic & Vascular Surgery, the American Board of Surgery, the American Academy of Wound Management, and the American College of Phlebology.

Garvey and his wife, Constance Lynch Garvey, have three children: Nzinga, Makeda, and Paul.

Zoom link: <https://sdsu.zoom.us/j/85743733823>

Sponsored by: Instructional Related Activities

